TABLE OF CONTENTS
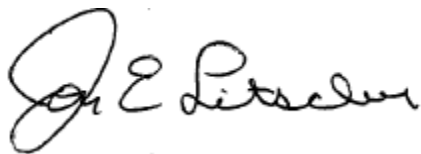

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to share the updated 2018 version of the 2017-2018 Wisconsin Department of Corrections (WIDOC) Reentry Business Plan. At its most fundamental level, Reentry represents our Department's commitment to the National Institute of Corrections' Eight Principles of Effective Intervention throughout the entire lifecycle of a WIDOC offender. This plan unites staff from all Divisions and locations in our efforts to make evidence-based decisions and provide the highest standard of correctional service.   Completion of the work outlined in this plan has been, and will continue to be a priority for the Department in the coming years.

The Reentry Executive Team (RET) has established objectives for fiscal year 2018 which are highlighted in the following Executive Summary. These 11 objectives, as well as others outlined in the broader plan, are essential to the way DOC staff and offenders will achieve successful reintegration and recidivism reduction. I am especially pleased to highlight the objectives related to enhancing offender educational, vocational, and employment opportunities via partnerships with the Technical College System which are showing great promise.

The Reentry Business Plan is dynamic, continuously being reviewed and updated. It serves as a vital road map in the DOC for all employees as well as our community stakeholders. You can always find the plan on MyDOC in the Reentry section, as well as on our Public Website. I encourage you to familiarize yourself with the plan, and as you have questions, bring them to your supervisor. The Reentry Executive Team, made up of the Assistant Deputy Secretary, four Division Administrators, Research & Policy Director, Director of the Victim Services Program, Reentry Director, Reentry Project Manager, and the Reentry Evidence-Based Program Manager, will continue to oversee the execution of this plan. I want to thank the RET as well as all DOC staff for your dedication to Reentry and your commitment to reduce recidivism.

Sincerely,

Jon Litscher

WIDOC Secretary

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Reentry Executive Team has identified objectives in the FY18 Reentry Business Plan for completion in FY18. The plan was first published by the Wisconsin Department of Corrections (WIDOC) in 2008. A major revision to that plan occurred in 2011. The dynamic evolution of this plan clearly indicates WIDOC's commitment to using this roadmap for achieving excellence in correctional programming. The plan was envisioned as a 5-year plan. Some tasks require the completion of others before the next sequential step can commence. Other tasks require the creation of a process for activities that will become on-going. The chart below outlines some key objectives to be accomplished in FY18.

EVIDENCE-BASED PRACTICE

Implementing evidence-based practices is a priority for the Department of Corrections. The principles of evidence-based practice meet the community's needs in terms of quality, efficiency, and effectiveness. Research demonstrates that these principles will result in increased public safety through improved offender outcomes, while holding offenders accountable. Accordingly, all staff, from those in Food Service to Correctional Officers, from Probation/Parole Agents to Social Workers, from Wardens to Regional Chiefs, and all others who are part of the corrections team share a common approach and commitment to enhancing public safety through evidence-based practices.

In corrections, Evidence-based practice is the breadth of research and knowledge around processes and tools which can improve correctional outcomes, such as reduced recidivism.
(http://nicic.gov/EvidenceBasedPractices)

CRIMINOGENIC NEEDS

Recent research has demonstrated that certain types of correctional programs are shown to be more effective in reducing recidivism. In predicting recidivism, there are a number of static factors to include age and criminal history that cannot change. Treatment and programs can address other factors that influence values, attitudes and actions. These areas which have been shown to be associated with recidivism and can be changed are called criminogenic needs. (Top 4 criminogenic needs highlighted.)

Criminogenic Needs	Response
Anti-social cognition	Reduce anti-social cognition, recognize risky thinking and feelings, adopt an alternative identity
Anti-social companions	Reduce association with offenders, enhance contact with pro-social
Anti-social personality or temperament	Build problem solving, self-management, anger management, and coping skills
Family and/or marital	Reduce conflict, build positive relationships and communication, enhance monitoring/supervision
Substance abuse	Reduce usage, reduce the supports for abuse behavior, enhance alternatives to abuse
Employment	Provide employment seeking and keeping skills
School	Enhance performance rewards and satisfaction
Leisure and/or recreation	Enhance involvement and satisfaction in

ELEMENTS OF REENTRY

The Department's Reentry Business Plan, as part of the DOC Strategic Plan, brings together a number of initiatives within the Department, each with a common goal of reducing the likelihood of future criminal behavior by offenders convicted of crimes who are supervised by WIDOC staff. These initiatives share a common philosophy and approach to risk reduction among the juvenile and adult offenders served by WIDOC. These are characterized by the following elements:

- Transition begins at intake to any WIDOC Division, when a comprehensive case plan is developed for moderate and high-risk offenders that addresses the criminal risk factors that, if addressed effectively, will enhance the likelihood of successful integration in the community and reduce recidivism.

- Staff hold offenders accountable by providing both positive and corrective responses to offender behavior, by serving as pro-social role models, affirming prosocial behavior and teaching offenders prosocial skills and by addressing in firm, fair, and appropriate ways anti-social attitudes, beliefs and behaviors.

- Offenders are prepared for community living through specific interventions related to their case plan, such as work, education, and focused treatment programs and release planning.

- Offenders have the opportunity to develop healthy relationships with their family and children, when appropriate, in order to build pro-social community support and break the intergenerational cycle of crime.

- Transition from incarceration to community is carefully planned collaboratively by both institution and community corrections staff, coordinated with inmates and community stakeholders and developed in full consideration of the concerns of victims.

- Supervision in the community, consistent with the corrections case plan and these principles, is key to reducing recidivism for those released from prison and those placed on community supervision.

- Programs and services provided to offenders are outcome, research and evidence-based.

- Staff support and reflect the Department's values in all aspects of their work.

- Performance measures will provide Department management, employees, and stakeholders with an objective assessment of the extent to which the strategies contained within the Reentry Business Plan are effectively implemented

			FY18	Employment: The Employment KPI has not been finalized. The Research and Policy Unit continues to work on validating various data sources that could be used for reporting on offender employment outcomes.
				Victim Services: Over the past fiscal year (2017), OVSP sent 15,283 notifications to registered victims. Most of these notifications included information regarding an offender's admission to prison, release from prison, notice of parole hearings and community supervision status changes. OVSP staff also responded to the emotional needs of 5,936 victims during this same time period via telephone, mail, email and face to face. Many of these responses involved answering questions regarding the criminal justice system, providing referral for services and follow-up, providing information on offender status, assisting with the development of safety plans, working cooperatively with Probation and Parole Agents in the development and modification of rules of supervision and answering questions regarding restitution.

2. Engage in ongoing review of alternative screenings, trailer tools, and other offense-specific risk assessments to determine feasibility of implementation for WIDOC.
2a. Initiate pilot of gender-responsive risk assessment in COMPAS with a targeted population of Wisconsin Women's Correctional System Inmates.	Reentry Project Manager	Unified Corrections Coalition	FY18	The pilot evaluation for gender-responsive assessment is complete. Several recommendations have been made including additional training (T4T and technical assistance), shortening of the assessment, and the discontinuation of the Bureau of Classification & Movement Anger scale for women. These changes will be implemented in FY18.
2b. Engage in ongoing review of alternative screenings, trailer tools, and other offense-specific risk assessments to determine feasibility of implementation for WIDOC.	Office of Program Services Director	Unified Corrections Coalition	FY18	Initial DVSI-R exploration was completed in SY2016 at BOCM. Early results suggested a pause on further implementation due to potential lack of value and training concerns. Other tools will be assessed as needed.
2c. Implement the Intoxicated Driver Assessment (IDA) for use initially in a small-scale deployment in the Division of Community Corrections. This includes partnership with local county criminal justice agencies. DCC will stage implementation as more training capacity increases.

PRIORITY: CASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Goal: Implement a case planning and management system that targets risk reduction services, based upon empirically assessed risk factors, to moderate and high-risk youth, inmates and offenders under community supervision. The case management system will result in a single, seamless case plan that transitions with the individual youth/adult through the correctional system; clearly delineates those strategies designed to reduce the individual's likelihood for future delinquent/criminal behavior; defines staff roles and responsibilities in the management of the individualized plan; and establishes clear measures for the individual youth/offender's progress in accomplishing the goals of the plan.

CASE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM		Primary Responsibility for Implementation	Secondary Responsibility	Major Milestone and/or Target Completion Date	Status Update (September, 2017)

Unified Corrections Coalition	Unified Corrections Coalition/Reentry Executive Team	Ongoing	Initial work is complete based on completed business process for each division. However, UCC continues to deploy staff as needed based on new discovery that there are overlaps or gaps in workflows that were not initially identified. Cross Divisional Coordinators review Business Plan for consistency as it is added to the ECRM.

PRIORITY: INTERVENTIONS, PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Goal: Assure that the risk reduction interventions, programs and services provided to youth, inmates, and offenders under community supervision are evidence-based and effectively address the criminogenic needs and level of risk of the individual.

Windows to Work, collaboration with each of Wisconsin's 11 workforce development boards, is active in 12 DAI institutions and 4 county jails as of 8/2017. Expansion of the Windows to Work program will be explored in anticipation of additional funding in the amount of $250,000 in FY2018. With the additional funding, DOC will attempt to expand to Redgranite Correctional Institution and Kettle Moraine Correctional Institution. A recent redesign of the program now allows for individuals at a participating institution to enroll in the program while incarcerated and transfer to the program in the WDB area where they are releasing. With additional funding allowing for expansion, and with the recent redesign of the program

These initiatives will be modeled after the Industrial Maintenance Essentials pilot, and will target WCCS inmates.
2. Develop and strengthen relationships that provide youth, inmates, and offenders under community supervision with opportunities for positive social support.
2.a. Division-Specific Implementation Teams will address strategies for alignment with evidence-based program standards throughout FY16. These efforts will include expanding program activities to include family and natural supports within the community—allowing supportive external individuals an opportunity to understand and effectively reinforce the concepts and skills learned by offenders within the programmatic framework.	Evidence-Based Program Manager	Division of Adult Institutions Office of Program Services Director/Division of Community Corrections CSS/Division of Juvenile Corrections Asst. Administrator	Ongoing	Divisional Representatives created inventories of social support- related initiatives during FY13.

The UCC Evidence-Based Program Standards Committee continues their work with approved program standards in the areas of Cognitive-Behavioral Programming (CBP) and Sex Offender Treatment (SOT). Division-specific implementation teams have formed and are developing business process for implementation. Divisions continue to work towards standardized documentation and changes in WICS statuses to reflect the risk-need-responsivity principle. SOT implementation teams continue to modify contract language to reflect the new standards. Business process around assessment and screening tools continues to be developed. Communication and collaboration between DAI and DCC supports a strong continuum of care model. Work continues in the area of Substance Abuse Treatment and division-specific teams continue to develop levels of services based on risk and evidence-based substance abuse screening tools. Standards take into account the importance of strong social supports and efforts to connect offenders with such support will continue. |

CONCLUSION

The Wisconsin Department of Corrections strives to increase public safety, as measured by reduced recidivism, through the implementation of the strategies included in the Reentry Business Plan. To be successful in achieving these results, the Department has defined a set of specific goals, objectives, and tasks designed to ensure our public safety goals are realized. In addition to defining the strategies the Department intends to implement in order to meet these goals, and the methods that will guide evaluation of the Department's success in achieving them, this plan will also assist all staff within the department to understand the change strategies underway and each individual staff person's role in supporting the agency's vision, mission and goals. The Reentry Executive Team will regularly evaluate the extent to which the goals, objectives, tasks and timelines within the plan are being met, and take action to address performance gaps that may be identified through their assessment. The plan will be regularly updated to reflect the Department's progress in achieving these change strategies; emerging research on offender success and risk reduction; and the needs of the agency and our state and local communities. Finally, an appendix has been added to track completed Reentry Business Plan objectives and tasks.
